

Good Leaders or Bad Leaders?

Objective: ...clarify and support spoken ideas with evidence, elaborations, and examples

Good leaders HELP and don't HURT the ones who trust them. In the story, the first grader trusted the older girl to tell her the truth. The first grader looked up to the second grader to be a good leader. Was the second grader a good leader?

Why did the second grader tell the first grader that her teacher wanted her teeth?

How did that make the little girl feel? How did that make the second grader feel? Do you think the second grader wanted the first grader to feel that way?

How could the second grader have been a better leader?

Read the following sentences. Does the sentence show a good leader or a bad leader? Put a 😊 on each sentence that shows a good leader. Put a ☹ beside each sentence that shows a bad leader. Be ready to talk about each one.

- ___ 1. A first grader told a kindergarten girl to go into the boys' restroom.
- ___ 2. A fourth grader showed a first grader the way to his classroom.
- ___ 3. A second grader smiled and said "hi" to a first grader.
- ___ 4. A third grader told a second grader that his new teacher was mean.
- ___ 5. A third grader read a book to a first grader.
- ___ 6. A second grader got off the bus before a first grader.
- ___ 7. A third grader asked a kindergarten girl why she was crying.

